TCI teacher Zhilin Wu introduced the cute Chinese panda to the audience and taught them to paint pandas with a brush pen. Pandas in various gestures made everyone laugh and created a relaxed atmosphere.
Gold Coast Mayor Tom Tate also attended the event and was in a group picture with the lion dancers.
People from different ethnicities showed their own distinctive cultures during the day, which were enjoyed by all whom attended.