

Harassment and Discrimination Contact Officer Role Statement

Overview of the role

Harassment and Discrimination Contact Officers (HDCO) provide information to the University community on policies and procedures related to the prevention, reporting and resolution of discrimination, harassment (including sexual harassment), sexual assault and bullying. HDCOs also

- provide appropriate referral information, for example on staff and student counselling;
- play an active and important role in promoting respect on campus.

Objectives of the HDCO role

The primary objectives of the role are to:

- show awareness of and the Tw 0.22_0 1 n'TJ 0.00.02 Tc -0.6.489 -1.217 06574.28 6 c0.6MC 0 T 0.c.12 harassment (including sexual harassment), sexual assault and bullying;
- provide information on internal and external options for reporting and resolution;